19th Sunday after Pentecost / 18th Sunday after Trinity – 2019

Introduction: Dear friends in Christ: Since we have all sinned – making ourselves deserving of God’s wrath, we are so blessed to have been ✦chosen, ✦redeemed, and ✦forgiven by God through our Lord Jesus Christ! However, we are not yet in heaven; the Christian life is a marathon, not a sprint. Along the course of our lives we are sure to encounter countless times of difficulty, which will ✦challenge us, ✦overwhelm us, and ✦cause us to consider giving up on God.

So, today, we focus on a parable told by Jesus, which is meant to ✦encourage us, ✦carry us through the difficult times, and ✦inspire us to NEVER give up on God – no matter what!!

1. The Setting: ¹ And [Jesus] told them a parable ~~to the effect that they ought~~ [(literally) that they must] always ~~to pray and not lose heart.~~

- a. Pray: Prayer is talking to God with words and thoughts. These are some prayer realities:

- i. Jesus is the only one between us and God.
 - ii. We must know Jesus as our Savior for our prayers to be heard by God the Father.
 - iii. Believers have the great privilege of calling upon God through prayer.
 - iv. The Holy Spirit helps us when we pray.
 - v. God is almighty in power, so He is always able to help us in every circumstance.
 - vi. God answers according to His timing and His knowledge of what is truly best.
- b. Do not lose heart: For those who DO lose heart, they ✦become discouraged, ✦fail to hold out successfully, and ✦give up. Since all such things are very bad and very sad, Jesus is going to encourage us to ✦keep seeking justice in this life and ✦keep praying to God for every need!
2. Keep Seeking Justice: ² [Jesus] said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected [turned toward] man. ³ And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary [in a lawsuit: opponent, accuser].’ ⁴ For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God nor respect man, ⁵ yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down [annoy me greatly, pester me, wear me out] by her continual coming.’”
- a. The woman: She had been wrongly accused; she was also a widow, so most likely she was poor and had no ability to buy the judge’s favor – just as we cannot buy our way into heaven.

- b. The judge: He did not fear God – not on a personal level, nor on the level of his important office as judge over the people. Also, he had no respect for people, so he would not turn toward them to acknowledge them; instead, his life was all about himself and his own interests.
 - c. The woman's action: She had no money or power, but she was persistent in coming to the judge over and over and over again, asking him to give her justice, to rule according to what everyone knew was right.
 - d. The judge's action: Initially he ignored the woman, so he was inactive toward her; however, after a while, he took action for these reasons: “Not the widow's unquestioned right and her opponent's flagrant wrong... but his own personal ease and peace...” (Lenski, 894).
3. Keep Praying to God: ⁶ And the Lord said, “Hear what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷ And will not God [οὐ μὴ: most certainly] give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? ⁸ I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on [the] earth?” // Some key comparisons:
- a. Interest: The judge had absolutely no interest in the widow, but God has absolutely all interest in His elect – the ones He has chosen for Himself in Christ before the creation of the world!
 - b. Persistence: The widow kept coming to the judge – possibly each day; the elect ones – you and me – are to cry out to God day and night!

c. Time:

- i. Over a short time the widow kept coming to the judge, so he finally gave in; however, our persistence toward God must be even greater – since we are running a marathon rather than a sprint!
 - ii. Now we have eternal life, but we will not experience the fullness of that life until Jesus returns.
 - iii. From God’s perspective, He is acting speedily; however, from our perspective, He seems slow. But why? He is waiting for more and more to repent (2 Peter 3:9).
- d. Value: The unrighteous judge placed no value on the woman; he couldn’t care less about her. But our righteous God values us so much that He gave His only Son to †put on flesh, †bear our punishment, and †open the way to heaven!
- e. Faith: Jesus said, “many will fall away (Matt. 24:10 ESV)”; even though it seems that many others have fallen away, let us NEVER give up on God!
